Online Member Directory

Businesses will be publicly listed on www.oxfordchamber.net. Our website features a fully searchable membership directory.

Information displayed online includes your business name, phone number, website, address, industry, and a short description (currently viewable when you click on your business name).

If you are renewing your business membership, please review your online listing and indicate below whether the information is correct. If any updates or changes are needed, please let us know.

I confirm that the information for my business in the Oxford Chamber online Member Directory is complete and accurate.

New Business Members or Those Wishing to Update Information

Please complete the form below with the information you would like to appear in the Oxford Chamber's print directory. If there is any information you prefer not to include, simply enter N/A in those fields.

Note: Unless you specifically request otherwise, email addresses will not be published in the online directory to protect members from spam and email harvesting.

For reference, you can view the current online directory to see examples of how member listings appear.
